

HE STOLE COATS CREDITORS WARNED

And Was Sent to Jail For Committee Finds Bankrupt's Case is "Startling"

Nicholas Sloan, who travels from city to city in search of work and change of climate, reached Lowell Sunday afternoon, having come from Lawrence. He had not been in the city very long before he got intoxicated, and Monday morning his condition was such that he was arrested, but was released yesterday morning before the opening of court.

It seems that during Sloan's travels from one saloon to another he stopped at Griffin's wood yard in Appleton street and took a coat belonging to Mr. Griffin from the office. He took the coat to Sam Slavin's second hand store in Middlesex street and after telling Sam the excellent quality of the goods, said that he would not let it go "I soak" for a cent less than $150, but when Sam offered him a quarter Sloan allowed the coat to go.

After disposing of the quarter in a thirst extinguishing parlor, Nicholas hiked himself to Davis street where he stole a coat, the property of John J. Osborne and sold it to Dave Bernstein for 25 cents.

Sloan was arrested yesterday afternoon by Inspector Martin Maher and when arraigned in police court this morning denied that he knew anything about the coats which it was alleged he had stolen. He said that he remembered nothing from 7 o'clock Monday morning until yesterday morning when he was released.

He was sentenced to three months in jail.

U. S. VICE CONSUL BOARD OF POLICE

An Attempt Made to Assassinate Him

NEW ORLEANS, Aug. 25.—Steamship passengers arriving from Colombia report the attempted assassination and serious wounding by two Colombians of William B. McMasters of New York, United States vice consul at Cartagena. The attack was the outgrowth of anti-American feeling there.

McMasters was at his home in Cartagena on the evening of July 21, when Laracendio, editor of an anti-American newspaper in Cartagena, accompanied by a friend broke in on him. Both were armed with knives and revolvers. McMasters put up a brave defense but was badly wounded in a dozen places and left for dead. A bullet grazed his forehead and he was stabbed in the head and abdomen. It is hoped, despite the severity of his wounds, that McMasters will recover. His assailants were not arrested till the next day. They are both in prison.

An official account of the outrage has been sent to the state department and it is understood that the United States legation in Bogota has demanded satisfaction.

COATS TO JAIL

PITTSBURG, Aug. 25.—William Vetter of Twelfth street, South side, got an idea that looked funny to him for a time and he proceeded to put it in execution. It landed him in jail in a few hours, and three body-battering undertakers came outside, each vowing to send the humorist Vetter back home.

Vetter's idea was to tell the undertakers in succession that his beloved wife had died, that she must be laid out for the grave at once. Business was dull among the undertakers visited by Vetter and each went with an agreed-upon price of $100 to the home of Vetter. Vetter had timed his call on the undertakers so they arrived at the Vetter home to "lay out" Mrs. Vetter about a half-hour apart.

The each seemed Mrs. Vetter the most awful "woman" they had ever tried to lay out. She had apparently

LOWELL WON

Worcester Defeated by a Score of 6 to 5

Talk about a see-saw battle, or to Phillips, Lowell didn't start anything in the seventh inning yesterday, when with the score tied 5-5, he fought against them until they patted two home run bats.

There were singles and three base hits as quickly as are strikes generally. George Ketchell, who thought he had the game all won, had been kindled by the players and the crowd, when the firecrackers started and knew it was a change in man at the bats, clapped on the worse and in a state, breaking up, collapse.

The seventh inning was worth the price of admission and a good cigar to the spectators. It had looked bad for Lowell, but the pouncing was rapid, and the holding of Wilkie at second was worse than that.

Danby and Howard were the batting stars, while Venable and Flaherty were the stars in the field, their fine work having a most important bearing on the game.

George Yerkes was the decision maker and cast with an accident, a foul breaking his mask and cutting his cheek.

The game was as follows:

First Inning

Two errors by Wilkie in the first inning ruined the visitors, scoring one run. Shaw hit an easy one to Wilkie, but the latter bumbled and the runner reached first. Yerkes sacrificed advancing Shaw. Bradley sent an easy one to Wilkie, but the latter made an error and Shaw scored. Burkett flew to Venable and Logan hit to Unice and was out at first.

In the latter half of the inning Venable bled to Yerkes, and Wilkie followed with a hit over second base. Flaherty struck out and Wilkie tried to make second and was nailed.

Score—Worcester 1, Lowell 0.

Second Inning

In the second inning Russell hit a foul by Venable. Brooklyn hit to Venable and died at first. Kieran hit to Venable and Kieran was thrown out.

In the latter half of the inning Danby sent the ball out to deep center field for a three-bagger and Howard followed with a strike out. Unice knocked a foul by which his Empire Edifice opening this block. Unice later hit to Venable and was out at first. Venable hit to Logan and Logan was out at first.

Score—Worcester 1, Lowell 0.

Fourth Inning

In the fourth inning Burkett hit to Wilkie and was out at first. Logan got hit by a pitched ball and walked to first. Russell hit to Unice who threw to Wilkie but the latter dropped the ball and the runner was safe. Ronan hit to Danby and Logan was caught between the bases. Flaherty hit to Logan forcing Wilkie at second.

Score—Worcester 1, Lowell 0.

Third Inning

The visitors went out in one, two, three order in the third inning. Shaw bled to Howard and Yerkes hit to Venable and was out at first. Bradley bled to Venable.

Danby singled to left field and went to second on Venable's sacrifice. Wilkie hit to Yerkes and Danby was caught between the bases. Flaherty hit to Logan forcing Wilkie at second.

Score—Worcester 1, Lowell 0.

Fifth Inning

Worcester scored another run in the fifth inning. Kieran hit a long fly to left field and Venable after a long hard run to the landing on the ball and dropped it. Kieran was around to third. Shaw hit to Flaherty and Kieran scored. Yerkes singled to left field and Ronan hit to Danby and Logan and Logan was put out at first. Ronan hit to Flaherty.

In Lowell's half Danby bled to Russell. Howard drew a base on balls and stole second. Unice bled to Russell and Venable struck out.

Score—Worcester 2, Lowell 0.

Sixth Inning

Worcester scored three more runs in the sixth inning. Burkett, the lead man up, bled to Venable. Logan followed with a single to left and Venable and Ronan. Ronan bled to Venable and Venable bled to Kieran and Kieran went to second and Danby hit to Danby and the runner was safe. Ronan hit to Danby and Venable out.

In the latter half of the inning while Unice, Kieran and Danby went to second and Danby hit to Danby and the runner was safe. Ronan hit to Danby and Venable out.

Seventh Inning

Yerkes started to cover field and went to first on Ronan's sacrifice. Burkett sent the ball to Unice and the runner of the covered and Logan hit to Danby and was out at first.

Howard sent the ball to Danby and Danby hit to Danby and Danby went to second and Danby hit to Danby and the runner was safe. Ronan hit to Danby and Danby out.

Eighth Inning

In the eighth inning Burkett, the lead man up, bled to Kieran. Kieran hit a single to Venable and Venable bled to Ronan. Ronan bled to Danby and Danby hit to Danby and the runner was safe. Ronan hit to Danby and Danby out.

Ninth Inning

Yerkes started to cover field and went to first on Ronan's sacrifice. Burkett sent the ball to Danby and the runner of the covered and Logan hit to Danby and was out at first.

Howard sent the ball to Danby and Danby hit to Danby and Danby went to second and Danby hit to Danby and the runner was safe. Ronan hit to Danby and Danby out.

Tenth Inning

In the tenth inning Burkett, the lead man up, bled to Kieran. Kieran hit a single to Venable and Venable bled to Ronan. Ronan bled to Danby and Danby hit to Danby and the runner was safe. Ronan hit to Danby and Danby out.

team would like to meet the Cadets' manager at the Y. M. C. A. this evening at 8 o'clock.

A party of Lowell people summing up Old Orchard beach went down to Biddeford, Me., recently to see Walter and Raymond Flyer play ball, both members of the Biddeford team. They were delighted with the boys' work, and Ketchell especially came by for much applause from the Lowellites and home folk. Biddeford folks seem to take kindly to their playing for an even opportunity the Lowellites were given to the cedar.

BASEBALL NOTES

Word was received yesterday that Fielder Jones, former manager of the Chicago White Sox who retired from the game last fall to go into the lumber business in Oregon, is anxious to buy the Boston National League outfit, which is a part owner of the St. Louis or Washington franchises. It is said on the best of authority that Jones has been in communication with all of those club with the idea of buying some sort of a deal that will put him in the way of becoming president of his life. Jones admits frankly that he has no desire to buy a club in the St. Louis American League, who is a close friend of the famous player. He goes decided some time ago to a successor to Manager McAlpin, and it has been currently reported that John O'Conor would be the man. But if Jones does a deal, with Hobbs, his co-ventor, a position will be had open.

It is further reported that in regard to the Washington club, which now has the players of Manager Cullen, President Jim Johnson is anxious to have Jones assume the control of the Sox, and a big salary and with a club of stock in part payment. The Washington is said to be ready to close with Jones at once, allowing him to name his own terms. The sale of the Boston Nationals to him is a certainty, as he has been buying the game for some time. It is said that Jones does not want to leave the American League, as he can't in it. Meanwhile, Jones is still the property of the Chicago American League club, having been placed on the reserve list by President Charles A. Conroy, and cannot sign as player with any other club in organized baseball. It is a surprise that Conroy will not allow him to manage the Browns or Washington without asking big money for his release, while it is a cliché that the American League is a whole world successfully opposed his acceptance of the Boston Nationals' management.

Jones refused to manage and play for the White Sox, and for less than $10,000, thought to give him more than half the amount, but Jones, who is well paid financially, decided to remain in the organization all summer. As a result the Sox without the managerial ability, have made a comparatively poor showing in the American League race this season, and Conroy is said to be rather tickled in his talk toward Jones. Conroy and Hobbs are not in the best of terms and for that reason Jones attempted to get a place on the St. Louis Browns and is blocked out of it. Jones, however, for the desertion of the Sox, it is just possible that Jones may be sentenced to manage the Washington team with Conroy's full consent, secured after a fat check having passed into the hands of the big Chicago magnate. Incidentally, baseball men who discussed Jones' case yesterday said it was just possible that the hundred-busines in Oregon had not come up to his expectations and that he is forced to pack his bag and that the national game.

THREE DOLLARS PER YEAR. TWENTY-FIVE CENTS PER MONTH

The sworn daily average circulation of The Lowell Sun for the year 1908 was

Sworn to by John H. Harrington, proprietor, Martin H. Reidy, business manager, and Alfred Pilote, pressman, of The Sun, before me, January 1, 1909. J. JOSEPH HENNESSY, Notary Public.

This is by far the largest average circulation of any newspaper in Lowell.

The people of Lawrence appear to be invited to learn that some of their city officials have been stealing paving stones, but they are fortunate indeed in that they have not a few other officials who are stealing something more valuable than paving stones every day in the week.

We have had the iron age and the golden age and the age of steam and the age of electricity, but now it looks as if we were about to enter upon the flying age. They tell us that we shall soon hear the cry, "All aboard for Boston and New York by the inter-state airship line."

They do say that there is a spindly hookbuck in one of the Boston hotels who has about as much contempt for the pugilistic powers of a mayor as McCarty of the Boston Athletic association had when he walked one Peyer in the 125-pound class a few years ago.

The citizens of Lowell should feel thankful for one privilege which they can enjoy without begging for a new charter or any legislative authority. When they get ready to do it, they can abolish the office of "Chief Executive Blatherskite" and revive the good old dignified office of "Mayor."

People are growing somewhat weary of murder trials, particularly those in which the sanity of the slayer is under discussion. The details of such murders, as a rule, are revolting to be sure, but what is driving the people to distraction is the incomprehensible and exasperating testimony of the latter day experts and atheist. The wonder is that the judges, jury and lawyers are not all sent to an insane asylum after some of these trials.

PROPOSED CHANGE IN PAPER MONEY.

It is proposed to revise the designs for our paper money to make them simpler and more difficult to counterfeit. This is a move in the right direction. It is also proposed to make the bills smaller in size. Another valuable suggestion. Our paper money would be much easier to handle if it was an inch shorter and one-half an inch narrower. It is also proposed to call in all paper money at frequent intervals and have it sterilized so that it will not be dangerous to handle. All these suggestions will surely meet with popular approval if carried out.

THE LAW'S DELAY.

A committee of lawyers have been studying up ways and means to prevent the notorious delays in the settlement of cases in the New York courts. They have prepared a set of rules which if put into force would be of some assistance, but it is generally agreed that a more radical plan will have to be adopted. We in Massachusetts suffer from the same evil. Indeed it is said that there are ten cases enough in the Suffolk county list to keep the courts going for ten years. This is nothing less than an outrage on the litigants who have small chance of securing justice under such conditions. It is about time that the practice in our Massachusetts courts was changed so as to permit of a swifter justice in disposing of cases of every kind. A committee composed of lawyers and practical business men ought to be set up to remedy this evil. The legislature should appoint such a committee as soon as practicable.

WILL THE GIRLS REBEL?

And now they tell us that the poor girls will be asked to wear a hat during the early fall and winter that beats any creation ever put upon the crowning glory of the feminine sex. The new Russian uniforms said to be a divine of valor. Thick, warm and other materials with a power something like cotton seed oil in the air and weighing seven and one-half pounds. If the girls submit to such an affliction as the tyrants of fashion force they have less sense than we give them credit for. Why, of all together ladies, and singly against this new Russian monstrosity? Rather have it reduced in height or decreased in weight or remove it, wear the intertional blouse and then put the smaller slacks or bays. I am a hundred years to Lowell before I lay two fingers on the shoulder of a Spinach City Alice with one of those unmentionable seven and one-half pound Russian traps on her head. It would be a failure from the start. She would either break the rousing to her a world loss in death, or in the struggle. Let us have something more practical and susceptible of intelligent manipulation in such a case.

LOWELL IS VERY MUCH ON THE MAP.

Many people are elated at the prospect of increased business opportunities since they have discovered that we are able to supply all that is suitable for the United States army. They are now experiencing Lowell. There was a time when the city was a spot of gray and now it is clothed in the colors of Lowell. Not only did the girls, as well as the light bunting, they may and the day before the day during the Civil War, but the Lowell Navy Yard was recently a scene of activity because of the large quantities of cloth that was used in the navy yards of the United States, as well as the Dragoon's. The United States government has a large quantity of cloth on hand, not only for some of its own, but it has also been used to supply for the clothing of which United States flags have been captured. The government uses large quantities of cord which is made by a local factory, and the cartridges which come from the United States Cartridge Co. for a large proportion of the armament supplied to Uncle Sam. Don't get the idea in your head that Lowell isn't on the map. It certainly is.

PEOPLE OF NOTE

Mrs. Leslie Carter is writing an appropriate and exciting title for the new play written for her by George F. Peabody, author of "The Prince of Cleopatra." It deals with modern life in a new department. Her Mrs. Carter has written a version of her own of "Cleopatra" and will present it in a special matinee during the coming season. "Kings" is John Luther Long's play, is also in the works and will open in it after she begins her season in St. Paul early in September.

Rev. George W. Huntington, a well-known clergyman of Winona, Iowa, has taken the courage to hand off the outer box to his wife, Cleopatra, a pot of red earth in a trough to begin his day. Mr. Huntington, when this takes away, will be rid of the hawks, hawks, hawks, hovering for his wife, the average weight being two and one-half pounds.

Mrs. Edna Lee Carter, the play girl, is now in the Adelphi, where she was most popular by Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell Chapman, Miss Peabody, who is now eighty-one, is an old-timer in theatricals. She is a widow for forty years and is mentally as lucid as ever.

Edward VII has spared his mother's husband, Edward VII, by continuing the reign of the British into the main front, making several additions and leaving the ground held by a tobacco manufacturer, so that Queen Victoria would hardly know her beloved home.

Omsk, Siberia, now has an American consulate, with Adolph E. Reichenbach in charge. Heretofore there has been no American consular representation in the extensive region between Moscow and Vladivostok, over 5,000 miles apart. In this territory are many large cities and the country is showing rapid agricultural development. Last fall 500 Russian immigrants passed through Omsk each 24 hours.

The sixth annual meeting of the American Brethren's association is called for December 8, 9 and 10, at Omaha, Neb., in association with the national corn show held at that place December 3 to 18. A program of addresses by prominent leaders of the stock, prominent breeders of plants and scientists prominent in the study of the heredity of plants, animals and men is being prepared. Various exhibits are being made to have point of the addresses illustrated with stereopticon views and moving pictures.

According to the Boston Advertiser, John L. Lewis, newspaper man, is well treated at the White House luncheon. Sometimes Mr. Lewis sits down with senators and with the members of a certain Sunday newspaper. Recently, Mr. Lewis, in a letter of correspondence, wrote to the president for two hours, having quite a visit with him and smoking Tiff cigars. It may be expected that he does not know where this power of influence on important positions is to be found or where it comes from. Yet he is said to be a great力 in among the press. No inspiring is being done. It is the correspondence that is reported in London that the Prince and Princess of Wales will visit the Duke and Duchess of York at their castle in October. The Duchess of York will be Mrs. May of New York.

Word comes from London that Miss Watson, the poor, wayward girl of "The Girl of the Mountains," will be seen at the opera house on Sept. 11, in a beautiful Indian dress. Miss Pringle of Hillside and Mr. Watson has just come back from his last vacation.

A PROTEST

AGAINST REMOVING INITIALS FROM LINCOLN PENNY

NEW YORK, Aug. 22.—Numerous persons throughout the country and in Europe are organizing a protest against the design of the United States coin department in removing the initials of the designer from the new Lincoln penny. Dr. Horace E. Stoner of Newark, R. I., one of the oldest and best known collectors of the country, and Dr. William T. Martin, editor of the American Journal of Numismatics, both made recent statements. Dr. Stoner in a pen letter to Victor H. Brown, writer:

"It seems to me that on both sides need models an artistic and not a scientific one. Just as it is the artist's name upon canvas, so should it be upon the coin. Otherwise, as well as regarding the present worth and the circumstances of personal identity, it cannot fail to impress the mind of a specimen. I can't think the matter to the attention of the coin collectors and New York, Boston, and the like of London, Australia, Brussels and Vienna, and the international congress of '08, and I trust that you may take this in the properly appreciated."

EXPOSURE TO WET.

Exposure to water, either in a sudden fall of rain or in a wash of water, will damage the leather, and the leather will be ruined.

Two leather garments are now in vogue, one for every day wear, and the other for summer wear.

LAWYER'S WILL SPEAKER CANNON, HIS ENEMY AND MAN WHO MAY BE SPEAKER

Is Being Contested by His Relatives

BOSTON, Aug. 25.—A contest over the will of Thomas Moran, one of the best known criminal lawyers of New York, who dropped dead in the Central Y. M. C. A. building in that city yesterday, has been begun by Frederick Noland and Mrs. Ellen Noland, nephew and niece of Lynn. Mr. Moran is thought to have left about $50,000. The contest will take place in New York. The Nolands are represented by McNamee & Alfords.

Mr. Moran went from Lynn to New York many years ago to practise law. He was looked upon as something of a character in the New York criminal courts and was noted for his keenness. His office was at 359 Broadway. He was about 60 years old when he died.

Mr. Moran left a will leaving all his property to two brothers and a sister, Thomas, William and Michael Moran, and Mrs. Julia Maher, all of Lynn. There has been some difficulty in finding out just what the property consisted of, but it is said for the brothers and sister have not succeeded in locating about $300 worth of securities, and it is thought that there is some real estate also.

Mr. Moran never came to Lynn and his brothers and sisters had not seen him for many years. The news of his death and the will came as a surprise. The heirs are in a state of advanced age. The brothers were formerly shoe workers, but are now retired. They are represented by the firm of Harmon & Healy of Lynn. Attorney W. O. Payne represents Mrs. Maher.

COUPLE ELOPED

ATTORNEY QUINN

Says Man Offered to Suppress Evidence

High School Boy and Girl Ran Away to Get Married

GARDNER, Aug. 25.—Both a high might bridegroom to Portland, Me., left school girl and boy of this town and the city yesterday after their parents, the parents of both age indefinitely. It is believed that they went to see their Engaged W. S. Quinn, a prominent attorney, when the two young sons of Mr. and Mrs. William Quinn, the young man who recently came into the high school, graduated and went to the joint residence of Miss Casavant and Miss E. M. Quinn, the man's mother for his man's sake, his mother, his wife, and his two daughters have been present in Gardner for a number of years. A few years ago one of the daughters was voted by the state legislature to be the prettiest woman in the state of Indiana.

The bride was the widow of John A. Quinn, a well-known lawyer, who left a wealthy estate when he died a few years ago. Miss Quinn is about 30 years old, while Mr. Quinn is 21 years old. Both have been frequent visitors in the town during the last year and the marriage had been expected.

By the power of her father's money, and in the power of her wealth, she will lose the services of the Quinn household in Gardner, a home which is valued at $2,000. The property will pass to the control of her four children. The daughter is the wife of Fred Ladd, an attorney at Sullivan, Ind., and a member of the board of trustees of the Southern Indiana insane hospital.

Miss Quinn and her daughters have been prominent in Gardner, so far for a number of years. A few years ago one of the daughters was voted by the state legislature to be the prettiest woman in the state of Indiana.

The bride was formerly married to the town's most prominent man, and in this summer left Mr. Quinn's home, and to this man and Mrs. Quinn, and their household in Gardner. Mrs. Quinn's property is now owned, and she is now building a new home to be occupied by her new boy friend.

A HARD WORKER

Archbishop Farley Visited the Pope

EX-PRESIDENT'S SON

"Teddy" Roosevelt, Jr., a Visitor to Lowell Today

"David Gray" was in town today.

"Who knows David Gray?" is probably the first question that will be asked.

Well, "David Gray" is none other than Theodore Roosevelt, Jr., son of ex-President Theodore Roosevelt, who is now hunting wild game in Africa.

Theodore, who has been learning the carpet business in the plant of A. D. Higgins in Enfield, Conn., thought he would be able to get through Lowell without being recognized but he had been at the Richardson hotel but a few minutes before he was recognized as the "Teddy boy" who had spent a few years at Groton.

The party which consisted of Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Higgins, Miss Grace Higgins and "David Gray" (Theodore Roosevelt, Jr.) arrived at the Richardson hotel from the White mountains shortly after noon and stopped at the Richardson hotel where dinner was partaken of.

His presence in town was not made public until a few minutes before the time for his leaving took place, and the newspapermen did not have a chance to get in communication with him.

When he left the hotel he was directed towards Worcester and from there he was to go to Enfield, Conn.

According to what conversation he dropped at the dinner table he is to be present at the automobile races to be held in this city during Labor day week, but at that time, like today, he will travel incog.

TO RESUME DUTIES

PARIS, Aug. 25.—The French government has instructed M. Regnault, who is returning to Morocco to take up his duties as minister, to make common cause with the other members of the diplomatic corps at Tangier who have decided to make firm representations to Mulei Hafid, the sultan, to discontinue the horrible tortures and mutilations of prisoners such as were practised recently on the followers of El Righi who fell into the hands of the sultan's troops.

AN EARTHQUAKE

Numerous Buildings Destroyed and Many Persons Injured

SIENA, Italy, Aug. 25.—A heavy earthquake was felt throughout the province of Siena at 1:29 a. m. today. Practically all the houses in San Lorenzino were destroyed or badly damaged. Many persons were injured.

The quake was felt most severely within a radius of twenty miles from Siena. Considerable damage was done at Buonconvento. Several houses collapsed and one person was killed. Several persons were injured at Monteroni. A number of houses also were damaged there and masonry fell into the streets. The shock was recorded at Piombino on the coast about 50 miles southwest of Siena at 1:25 a. m. and there was a repetition a few minutes later. The people fled from their homes but no damage has been reported.

Siena itself escaped with a severe shaking. The people were badly frightened, however, and rushed out of their houses into the streets where they wandered about in a state of semi-panic until they were assured that the quakes were over.

Siena province has an area of 1470 square miles and a population of 233,000. The city of Siena is at an altitude of 1600 feet and counts 30,000 inhabitants. San Lorenzino, Buonconvento, Monteroni and Piombino are villages with populations ranging from 1000 to 14,000.

BODY OF MAN DISCOVERED

HAVERHILL, Aug. 25.—An Italian laborer on a berry-picking trip through the Millvale swamps today discovered the body of a man which apparently had been in the woods for a year. No marks of identification have been found. The police and medical examiner think that it appears a probable murder.

MORE TYPHOID FEVER

CRANSTON, R. I., Aug. 25.—Four more cases of typhoid were discovered at the county jail this morning, making fifteen now under observation. The cases this morning were again almost entirely confined to the guards, three of them being taken to the Rhode Island hospital. The other patient was a woman prisoner, the first one on the fugitive side to be taken ill.

Many Clergymen Present at the Funeral of Rev. Fr. Mangin

The remains of the late Rev. Joseph Mangin, O. M. I., were tenderly carried in the prettiest little casket of the oratories within the spacious atrium surrounding the scholasticate at Tewksbury, with solemn and impressive funeral services at the Immaculate Conception church this morning.

The remains, clothed in full vestments, had rested in state in the church prior to the funeral, and yesterday afternoon at 5 o'clock the service for the dead was chanted by many of the local priests, a large congregation of parishioners assisting. Mangin in the evening the rosary was recited by Rev. John J. McElroy, pastor of the Immaculate Conception church, with a large congregation.

Shortly before 10 o'clock this morning the solemn tolling of the bell of the church announced the approach of the hour of the funeral services and at 10 o'clock when the long line of priests and theologians entered from the vestry the church was filled with people from all parts of the city. The celebration of the mass was very brief. Rev. M. J. Fallon, O. M. I., Rev. J. D. McElroy, O. M. I., Rev. J. J. McElroy, O. M. I., Rev. D. J. Clancy, O. M. I., Rev. R. A. McEvily, O. M. I., Rev. D. Archbishop O'Connell was unable to attend. Assisting at the service also were the Gray Nuns of the Immaculate Conception and St. Joseph's School, the Sisters of Mary of the Sacred Heart school and the sisters of Charity of St. John's Hospital.

The music was particularly beautiful and impressive and was given by an augmented choir under the direction of Mrs. Hugh Walker who also presided at the organ. Schmidt's beautiful requiem mass was sung the solo being sustained by Mrs. Terence Coughlin, Haggerty and James J. Donnelly.

At the offertory Mrs. Walker sang Schmidt's "Domine Jesu Christi" and after the elevation Edward F. Shea sang Lebedev's "Pie Jesu." At the conclusion of the mass Rev. Haggerty gave Hymnus "Te Stadit." The songs in the "labora" were sustained by John J. Dalton. At the close of the final service as the procession of priests slowly filed off after the final chalice rendered the stately funeral dirge "Quando Corpus" from Rossini's "Stabat Mater." After the service a final repartition was afforded to view the remains, after which the priest who tenderly bore the遗体 to the hearse which awaited it without

Walker softly played the "Psalms" in Sain as the funeral procession moved from the church. The following pall-bearers were Joseph Lofdavore, O. M. I., Rev. J. P. McElroy, O. M. I., Rev. J. J. LOWELL WON

Worcester Defeated by a Score of 6 to 5

Talk about a sports star! Indeed, if Lowell didn't score something in the seventh inning to today, when with the score five to four against them they might go six times to the plate and won the game.

There were singles and three batters as plentiful as any strikeout, generally, Jesse Kierian, who thought he had the game all won, had been kidding both the players and the crowd when the fireworks started and Kierian was a jangled mess at the plate, changed for the worse and save a state bordering on collapse.

The seventh inning was worth the price of admission and a good one into the bargain. It had looked bad for Lowell, for the game was rather aimless and the pitcher in Wilkins was second best worse than that.

Tommy and Howey were the hitting stars, while Vining and Fluharty were the stars in the field, while and work having a most important bearing on the game.

Empire Pabst was the decision maker and met with an as usual a foul trip breaking his neck and cutting his check.

The game was as follows:

First Inning

Two errors by White in the first inning resulted in the visitors scoring one run. Shaw hit an easy one to Wilkins, but the latter handled the ruffian reached first. Vining sacrificed advancing Shaw. Bradley took an easy one to Wilkins but the latter made an error and Shaw scored. Kierian hit to Vining and Logan hit to Union and was out at first.

In the latter half of the inning Venable hit to Vining, and Wilkins followed with a hit over second base. Fluharty struck out and Wilkins tried to make second and was mated.

Score—Worcester 1, Lowell 0.

Second Inning

In the second inning Russell hit to Venable, and Kierian hit to Union and died at first. Kierian singled to right field, Kandy hit to Venable and Kierian was thrown out.

In the latter half of the inning Danzig sent the ball out to the fence, followed by a three-legged and Howard followed with a strike out. Then Kierian hit a foul fly which hit Vining after hit to Union and was out at first. Vining singled to right field, Kandy hit to Venable and Kierian was thrown out.

Duval singled to left field and went to second on Venable's sacrifice. Wilkins hit to Vining and Duval was caught between the lines. Fluharty hit to Logan forcing Wilkins at second and to Logan forcing Wilkins at second.

Score—Worcester 1, Lowell 0.

Fourth Inning

In the fourth inning Burkett hit to Wilkins and was out at first. Logan got hit by a pitched ball and walked to first. Russell hit to Union who threw to Wilkins but the latter dropped the ball and the runners were safe. Rendone hit to Duval and Logan was put out at the plate. Kierian hit to Fluharty.

In Lowell's half Duval hit to Russell. Howard drove a base on balls and stole second. Union hit to Russell and Vining struck out.

Score—Worcester 1, Lowell 0.

Fifth Inning

Worcester scored another run in the fifth inning. Kierian hit a long fly to left field and Vining after a long hard run got it down on the last bat dropped it. Kandy going around to third. Shaw hit to Fluharty and Kandy scored. Vining struck to left field. Bradley hit to Wilkins, the latter tagged second and threw the ball to first for a double play.

In Lowell's half, Duval hit to Vining. Duval went out to Vining and Venable hit to Burkett.

Score—Worcester 1, Lowell 0.

Sixth Inning

Worcester scored three more runs in the sixth inning. Burkett, the first man up, hit to Vining. Logan followed with a single to left and Russell did likewise. Rendone had a base to Vining. Kierian hit a two base to deep left field, Fluharty and Duval. Kandy hit over second base and Kandy went to third. Kandy and Kierian worked a double steal, the latter scoring. Shaw hit a base on balls. At this point Duval was taken out and Tompkins stepped in to start the third and was thrown out.

In the latter half of the inning Wilkins hit to Vining and was out at first. Fluharty hit to Kierian who dropped the ball and Fluharty went to second. Vining hit to Russell and Howard hit to Wilkins.

Score—Worcester 4, Lowell 0.

Seventh Inning

Worcester singled to Vining and went to second on Russell's base. Fluharty had a base to Vining and the latter scored. Vining hit to Fluharty and Fluharty scored. Vining struck to left field. Bradley hit to Wilkins, the latter tagged second and threw the ball to first for a double play.

In Lowell's half, Duval hit to Vining. Duval went out to Vining and Venable hit to Burkett.

Score—Worcester 4, Lowell 0.

Eighth Inning

In the eighth inning Vining and Venable had a base to Vining and Venable scored. Vining hit to Fluharty and Fluharty scored. Vining struck to Vining and Venable hit to Burkett.

Score—Worcester 4, Lowell 0.

Ninth Inning

Score—Worcester 4, Lowell 0.

Ninth Inning

Shaw hit to Vining. Vining died out.

The manager of the Y. M. C. A. Jack Johnson and M. Kaufman for team would like to meet the Cadets' manager at the Y. M. C. A. this evening at 8 o'clock.

A party of Lowell people numbering at Old Orchard beach went down to Biddeford, Me., recently to see Walter and Raymond Payne play ball, both being members of the Biddeford team. They were delighted with both boys and Raymond especially came in for much applause from the Lowellites and some folks. Biddeford folks seem to take kindly to their playing for, every opportunity the Lowell boys were offered to the echo.

BASEBALL NOTES

World War is over, yesterday, that Biddeford, the other manager of the Chicago White Sox, who retired from the game last fall to go into the business of real estate, anxious to buy the Boston National League club, consisting of twelve part owner and manager of the St. Louis or Boston team. It is said on the part of a source that Jones has been in communication with all of those who are in a position to get him in the way of baseball, writing the rest of his life. Jones' attitude frankly toward his decision to buy a half interest in the St. Louis Americans from George F. Johnson, the present owner, who is a close friend of the famous player. Jones decided some time ago to seek a successor to Manager McLean, and it has been currently reported that John Dwyer would be the man. But Dwyer chose a deal with Biddeford the other proposition will be in effect.

It is further reported that in reorganizing the Washington club, which involves the release of Manager McLean, it is thought that Johnson is anxious to have Jones assume the control of the Senators at a big salary and will a size of stock in part payment. The Washington club is said to be ready to go with Jones at once, allowing him to name his own terms. The sale of the Boston Nationals to Jones and a syndicate he has formed has been nearing fire for some time, as such, Jones does not want to leave the American League if he can't get it. Meanwhile, Jones is still the property of the Chicago American League club, having been placed on the reserve list by President Charles A. Comiskey, and cannot sign players with any other club in organized baseball. It is a strong belief that Comiskey will not allow him to manage the Browns or Washington without asking big money for his release, while it is a fact that the American League is a whole world successfully opposes the Boston National's management.

Jones refused to manage and play games with the White Sox this year for less than $20,000. Comiskey said to pay him more than half that amount, but Jones, who is well fixed financially, decided to remain in the organization. As a result, the six without big managerial ability, have made a comparatively poor showing in the American League this season and Comiskey is said to be rather bitter in his feeling toward Jones. Comiskey and Hedges are not on the best of terms and for that reason Jones' attempt to get in place of the St. Louis Browns may be blocked. Out of regard for his former, however, for his desertion of the Sox it is just possible that Jones may be sentenced to manage the Washington team with Comiskey's official consent secured after a fat check has passed into the hands of the big Chicago magnate. Incidentally, baseball men who discussed Jones' case yesterday said it was just possible that the timber business in Oregon had not come up to his expectations and that he is forced to take his way back into the national game.

COLORED PHYSICIANS MEET

BOSTON, Aug. 25.—Over 300 colored physicians, dentists and pharmacists, were formally welcomed to the city last night at Faneuil hall, being the delegates to the 11th annual convention of the National Medical association which opened here yesterday.

JIM BARRY

HAD BEST OF BOUT WITH BURNS LAST NIGHT

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Aug. 25.—Jim Barry had the best of a tame round fight with Jack Burns at the Pacific Athletic club arena last night. No decision was given from the ring. Barry sent Burns to the floor in both the second and the sixth rounds with right swings and at times showed flashes of his former speed but for the most part the rounds were devoid of anything like good or rapid fighting and were replete with clinches and footfights. In the tenth Barry went after his man and had him in distress at the end of the mill. Before the fight started, Burns was suddenly promised a fight with Jack Johnson, heavyweight champion in this city at some date during the latter part of September.

The New York American League purchased two more players yesterday in Charley Mitchell of Toronto and Outfielder McLean of Utica. Mitchell was a pitcher with the Philadelphia Nationals several years ago but has been catching sensational ball for the Kalamazoo team all this season. In eighty-five games he has made eighty-four hits for a batting average of .308, while his backstopping and throwing to bases cannot be excelled in the Eastern League. The Highlanders' second team, Arthur Irwin and Eugene McLean, showed the batting and fielding averages of a number of the young players yesterday. Outfielder Ayres of Utica leads the Tri-State league in hitting with .364. In thirty-four games he has knocked out 43 hits and has stolen 22 bases. Third Baseman Timmeyer, who can pitch and catch, has made 140 runs in 100 games, including 35 hits, 15 doubles, three biggers and 3 home runs, in forty-eight games for an average of .226. In ten games for Timmeyer will develop into one of the biggest hitters on the diamond next year.

IS RETIRED

ADMIRAL SWINBURNE HOLDS RECORD FOR NAVAL SERVICE

WASHINGTON, Aug. 25.—Fleet Admiral William T. Swinburne, who holds the record for the longest service than any of his contemporaries, was transferred to the retired list yesterday, when he attained the age of 62. Twenty-two years of his 45 years of service were spent at sea.

Admiral Swinburne's retirement does not leave us to say they in the grade of rear admiral. He is an extra member and received his promotion because of the important part he played in the Spanish-American war. He was promoted to his present rank July 22, 1906. The following month he was detailed commander in chief of the Pacific squadron and in such capacity served until a short time ago, when he was assigned to duty at the naval war college at Newport, R. I.

ADMIRAL SPERRY

TO BE ALLOWED TO CONTINUE HIS WORK

WASHINGTON, Aug. 25.—For the purpose of enabling him to complete his work in which he is engaged, he has been selected at the next meeting of the Senate to be appointed to the rank of rear admiral. The admiral is to be given a special date at the naval war college at Newport after his retirement in September when he is 62 years of age. When that is fixed, it is expected the admiral will retire from active life.

BOXING GOSSIP.

Charley Mitchell is on his way to New York to compete with Jim Burns, who will be the new champion. Burns, who is the present holder of the world's title, is to be the man for his ten rounds with the Lowell, Massachusetts, boxer, who is generally known as the "Irishman." Mitchell, who is 140 pounds, is a good boxer and is expected to do well.

W. H. Smith, of Boston, is present at the game.

AT MARBLE HOUSE

Meeting Held in Interest of Woman Suffrage

NEWPORT, R. I., Aug. 25.—Unopposed yesterday at Marble House, Mrs. C. H. Belmont, the president of the National Woman Suffrage association, held the 14th annual meeting of the organization in the great hall of the famous hotel.

In the centre of this hall a platform had been erected, whereupon the speakers sat. Those who addressed the audience of 500 persons, all under the great mansion, were men and women, over 60 years of age, and the grand furnishings were as fresh and rich as when the first meeting of the National association was held there 12 years ago. The visitors were not fewer than 200, and a large number of the hotel guests, Mr. Belmont and Miss Howe, the general manager, and the hotel staff, followed the proceedings.

They were restricted to the lower floor and to the balconies surrounding the upper part of that floor. But the splendor and surviving elegance of the great drawing room and the elaborately furnished hall, the former containing a collection of beauty, the latter during which the room was filled with the rich and in many cases elaborate ornaments and furnishings, were generally copied on. For this purpose delicate curtains of different colors were used, presenting a diversified appearance.

Police were stationed inside and out. An orchestra played on the cliff side of the Marble terrace.

When the visitors to the house joined those who had done so, the former only, they found themselves with a great rent, under which were the persons. In the center was a raised platform.

From her seat Mrs. C. H. Belmont, town came Mrs. J. M. Ward, the woman who has been a member of the National association for more than a dozen years ago. The visitors were not fewer than 200, and a large number of the hotel guests, Mr. Belmont and Miss Howe, the general manager, and the hotel staff, followed the proceedings.

Police were stationed inside and out. An orchestra played on the cliff side of the 250 room and united in the applause while the little woman, represented by Mrs. Ward and Mrs. Belmont stood at the foot of the platform.

For the manager, Mrs. Howe, now the president, made a speech in which she told the visitors of the work which she has done for the cause. Mrs. Howe was called to the platform in an invalid chair. She was soon seated on the platform and the applause was

Mrs. Belmont, in the best of spirits. Her remarks were short and simple. She said that they were well pleased with the meeting to be the responsibility of the National association, and that the hotel was the best hotel in the nation. THREE DOLLARS PER YEAR. TWENTY-FIVE CENTS PER MONTH

Sworn to by John H. Harrington, proprietor, Martin H. Reidy, business manager, and Alfred Pilote, pressman, of The Sun, before me, January 1, 1909. J. JOSEPH HENNESSY, Notary Public.

This is by far the largest average circulation of any newspaper in Lowell.

The people of Lawrence appear to be horrified to learn that some of their city officials have been stealing paving stones, but they are fortunate, indeed if they have not a few other officials who are stealing something more valuable than paving stones every day in the week.

We have had the iron age and the golden age; the age of steam and the age of electricity, but now it looks as if we were about to enter upon the flying age. They tell us that we shall soon hear the cry, "All aboard for Boston and New York by the inter-state airship line."

They do say that there is a spunky horseback in one of the Boston hotels who has about as much contempt for the pagilistic powers of a mayor as McCarty of the Boston Athletic association had when he walloped one Hyer in the billiard class a few years ago.

The citizens of Lowell should feel thankful for one privilege which they can enjoy without begging for a new charter or any legislative authority. When they get ready to do it, they can abolish the office of "Chief Executive Blatherskite" and revive the good old dignified office of "Mayor."

People are growing somewhat weary of murder trials, particularly those in which the sanity of the slayer is under discussion. The details of such murders, as a rule, are revolting to be sure, but what is driving the people to distraction is the incomprehensible andexasperating testimony of the latter day experts and alienists. The wonder is that the judge, jury and lawyers are not all sent to an insane asylum after some of these trials.

PROPOSED CHANGE IN PAPER MONEY.

It is proposed to revise the designs for our paper money to make them simpler and more difficult to counterfeit. This is a move in the right direction. It is also proposed to make the bills smaller in size. Another valuable suggestion. Our paper money would be much easier to handle if it was an inch shorter and one-half an inch narrower. It is also proposed to call in all paper money at frequent intervals and have it sterilized so that it will not be dangerous to handle. All these suggestions will surely meet with popular approval if carried out.

THE LAW'S DELAY.

A committee of lawyers have been studying up ways and means to prevent the notorious delays in the settlement of cases in the New York courts. They have prepared a set of rules which if put into force would be of some assistance, but it is generally agreed that a more radical plan will have to be adopted. We in Massachusetts suffer from the same evil. Indeed it is said that there are ten cases enough on the Suffolk county list to keep the courts going for ten years. This is nothing less than an outrage on honest litigants who have small chance of securing justice under such conditions. It is about time that the practice in our Massachusetts courts was changed so as to permit of greater celerity in disposing of cases of every kind. A committee composed of lawyers and practical business men could do a great deal to remedy this evil. The legislature should appoint such a committee as soon as practicable.

WILL THE GIRLS REBEL?

And now they tell us that the poor girls will be asked to wear a hat during the coming fall and whether that hats any creation ever put upon the crowning glory of the female sex. The new Russian toque is said to be a mixture of various kinds of furs and other materials with a tower something like nineteen inches in the band weighing seven and one-half pounds. If the girls submit to any such toque from the tyrants of fashion they have less sense than verily than credulity. Why not get together ladies and strike against this new Russian monstrosity? Either have it reduced in size or decreased in weight or refuse to wear the infernal combination and thus put the fashion shams at bay. Imagine a handsome young Lowell belle trying to lay her sleek on the shoulders of a Spindle City Adonis with one of these monstrosities seven and a half pounds Russian toques on her head. It would be a failure from the start; she would either wrench the toque off or he would lose his derby hat in the struggle. Let us have something more practical and susceptible of intelligent manipulation in such affairs.

LOWELL IS VERY MUCH ON THE MAP.

Many people are elated at the prospect of increased business in our cotton mills since they have discovered the means available to make a market suitable for the United States navy. This is not a new experience for Lowell. There was the time when the states and army and navy were clothed from the mills of Lowell. Not only had the Middletown mills turned the light blue for the navy, but the dark blue for the navy during the Civil War, but the Direct Navy Yard was also given its nickname, not because of the broad which flew by the window because of the fact that at one time large quantities of cloth that was used in the navy of the United States was made at the Direct mill. The United States government depends on Lowell not only for soot of coal but Lowell has been its source of supply for the heating of all its ships. Navy flags have been flying for years. The government does large quantities of cord which is furnished by a local factory, and the cartridges which come from the United States Cartridge Co. form a large proportion of the ammunition supplies for Uncle Sam. Don't get the idea in your head that Lowell isn't on the map. It certainly is.

Mrs. Leslie Carter is seeking an appropriate and catchy title for the new play written for her by Edward Peple, author of "The Prince of Puff." It deals with modern life, a new feature for her. Mrs. Carter has written a version of her own of "Camille" and will present it at special matinées during the coming season. "Gassed" the John Luther Long play, is also in rehearsal and she will appear in it when she begins her season in St. Paul early in September.

Rev. George W. Harrington, a Protestant clergyman at Winsted, Conn., has taken the contract to paint all theaster boxes in that place. Carrington is a tall, stout man and a brush is his tool. His motto, Mr. Harrington writes, is to paint the high way for the town, painting for his week the average weekly town dues.

Miss Anna Easton, director, the painter, has been on a trip to Alaska, where she was accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Michael Chapman. Miss Proctor, who is now eighty-five years of age, keeps in remarkable good health for her years and is active as well as keen and alert as ever.

Edward VIII has adopted his mother's Highland name, Balfour, by converting the rear of the house into the main room, making several additions on the ground floor out by a large open fireplace, that Queen Elizabeth and her husband may know her favorite.

Count Silber, now has an American constituency with Adj. Gen. Reinhart in charge. Recently there has been no American consul representation in the extensive region between Moscow and Vladivostok, over 5,000 miles apart. In this territory are many large cities and the country is showing rapid agricultural development. Last fall 5,000 Russian migrants passed through Omsk each 24 hours.

A program of addresses by prominent breeders of live stock, prominent breeders of plants and scientists prominent in the study of the heredity of plants and animals and in their propagation. Arrangements are being made to have many of the addresses illustrated with stereopticon views and in living pictures.

According to the Boston Advertising Bureau, newspaper men are well treated at the White House nowadays. Sometimes Mr. Taft sees them while in session with the secretaries, while in certain Salons, recently, with Miss Bolton. "A large number of correspondents were with the president for two hours, having quite a visit with him and smoking their cigars. If any correspondent does not know where the president spends his time in the various salons, he is sure to understand it now. Yet he is said that the president is not using the press. No newspaper is being denied to the correspondents that are writing stories.

HOW THE JOHNSON-KETCHEL BOUT SIZES UP AT PRESENT

By TOMMY CLARK.

ON all sides you can hear the question asked, "Will the Ketchel-Johnson fight be carried out as originally planned?" The recent poor showing of Ketchel against Billy Papke and the subsequent cutups of the middle-weight champion have probably lessened public interest in the coming battles for the world's championship between the pair.

Promoter Jim Coffroth and Manager Willis Britt, representing Ketchel, declared emphatically that the fight will take place in October as originally planned and have even gone so far as to state that had the recent fight ended in Ketchel being knocked out the heavyweight match would in no way have been interfered with.

Public opinion, however, seems to be something when the box office records are to be considered, and the indications are that neither Coffroth nor the fighters will rush headlong into the matter without first having given the middleweight champion another test to prove his right to meet Jack Johnson.

Before his fight with Papke there were many who gave Ketchel a mighty good chance of beating Johnson. They figured him a good ring general and a man with so remarkable a punch that Johnson would not be able to stand against him. Those same fight fans, however, when they looked at Papke and Ketchel, shook their heads when it was suggested to them that Ketchel would stand a good chance against the negro.

Ketchel's Stock Has Declined.

Even admitting that he injured his hands, he would as likely hurt those same hands against Johnson. Stanley didn't have the punch to stow away Banting Nelson recently, let alone Billy Papke or Johnson. The exercise of moving around the ring in the first three rounds, before Papke had marked him tired the Michigan boy, so that it must either be admitted that he was woefully out of condition or gone back in the boxing game.

There are few boxers who can give away forty pounds and still be considered a possible winner. Bob Fitzsimmons did this, it is true, but that one exception proved the rule. In the days of John L. Sullivan, James J. Corbett and even to the later period of James J. Jeffries there was no talk of matching middleweights against heavyweights. While Fitzsimmons was a middleweight by weight, he was a remarkable man in many ways and had proved his worth so thoroughly that there was no question of his right.

To the lighter classes, such as Joe Walcott among the welters and Joe Gans among the lightweights, there are instances of men going out of their classes and sustaining their reputations. It is more difficult, however, among the heavier fighters.

Ketchel has accomplished little of the Fitzsimmons sort. He looks to be a genuine middleweight and give no signs of putting on weight much about the 165 pound mark. He is middleweight champion beyond a doubt, but Papke cast a shadow on the title in his last go, not so much because of his superior work as because Ketchel failed miserably.

Under such conditions as exist Johnson would go in the ring a 10 to 1 favorite over Ketchel, and the odds no longer because there would be no betting. He would figure a certainty to whip Ketchel, and the fight would lose the charm that goes with the big contests of the ring.

Good Thing to Fight, Langford.

If Ketchel fights Langford, as he has agreed to do, however, the result might put a different aspect on affairs. The writer is one of those who believe that Ketchel's showing was due to his lack of training. He will find no easy opponent in Langford, and should he beat the negro middleweight Ketchel will once more be ranked with the leading fighters. Until then, for Jones was the most important cog in the machinery of the team, only the most headlong could ever keep a naturally weak scoring club like the Sox on the map, and never.

White Sox Miss Jones.

Catcher Billy Sullivan is having his hardships as manager of the Chicago Americans, and Fielder Jones' successor was doomed to trouble from the outset, for Jones was the most important done this or redeemed himself by a spectacular defeat of Papke the day of getting results. It is questionable whether Jones was ever appreciated. He never had a real strong man.

Ketchel Must Beat Langford.

There is no denying that Ketchel will have the toughest battle on his hands.

but that wonderful leader had the finer team in the race to win games, and for this reason Rossman has proved himself to be a most valuable asset. He never had a real strong man.

team, yet he always kept it in the hunt because he outgeneraled his opponents.

Jones was a thinker. He had splendid theories which he carried into very interesting stage and is in fact rounds, but accepts challenges for the coaching line. Young Ryan has for a berth in the Wisconsin team replaced him, and bids fair to win out. He wrote to his brother the other day and remarked: "There is another fellow trying to do so rash a thing as replace a star for the same job that I'm after. When he does, I'll be the first to tell him that I'm the best man for the job."

Many managers would think it a heresy against baseball tradition to do so rash a thing as replace a star for the same job that I'm after. When hopes that he ever has had when he faced Langford in New York Sept. 3, and his system was never changed. victory of Monte Attell over Frankie the record of the black is an impressive one. For years he has met and the percentage in his favor, and it tell sharply to the foregoer as a triangular heavyweights of all descriptions. The 158 pounders stood absolutely no chance against him. Among Sox and President Charley Comiskey over Neil he became the bantam champion of the world. It is, however, as a guess that every effort will be made to get him back to Chicago for next season.

It was a sorry day for the White Sox's contention that by his victory when Jones retired, and it's a good chance that every effort will be made to get him back to Chicago for next season.

Johnny Bull's Latest Setback.

The recent victory of the Meadowbrook Polo club in England, whereby the trophy returns to America, is particularly significant in that Great Britain has about lost its hold in international sports.

In the last few years it has lost its rowing honors to Belgium, its tennis trophy to Australia, while its showing in the London Olympics was distressingly poor.

In addition, it has never figured strong in boxing, with the exception of the featherweight and lightweight classes, and its efforts to win the yachting trophy from America is one long history of failures. What's the matter with John Bull?

Don't Abolish Foul Strike Rule.

It would be a step backward to abolish the foul strike rule, yet some baseball writers are continually nagging at this question on the plea that it would cause more hitting.

The chances are strong that the big baseball league rule makers would not listen to such silly twaddle. It would do nothing except lengthen games.

The public wants short, snappy contests and no drawn out games which drag past 6 o'clock. If baseball was merely an exhibition between two teams of burlesque nothing but swat the ball one after the other it wouldn't be much of a sport.

The day is past, and now we have the modern scientific players, where pitching, batting and fielding are about equal and which result in close scores. This has been helped greatly by the foul strike rule.

English Tennis Innovations.

In this year's English tennis championships at Wimbledon there were a couple of innovations which might well be copied here for the convenience of both players and spectators. One of these was the plan of having program numbers for the players instead of cards, and this saved the expense of printing the names of a lot of players who were defeated in the first round. The other new idea helped out this to an extent, and that was the printing on the program of the matches for each court. Thus when a spectator wanted to know the location of any particular match he had only to refer to his program and there were the names of the players, the number of the court, the hour of the match—and that was necessary to know. Some people thought it favored of commercialism, while the majority thought it a capital arrangement.

Rossman's Hitting Needed.

It took Manager Hughie Jennings of the Detroit Americans several weeks to conclude that it was better to have a good hitter than a good fielder in the game, and Rossman has been playing ever since.

Rossman's fault has always been his throwing, and after he had been several games by reason of some wrist trouble he was berated and Moriarty sent to first. But Rossman's hits were soon missed, and he was brought back into the game.

Enough perhaps the strongest team in the league, the Tigers can't afford to have one of their best hitters on 115 pounds. That was the weight at which he was dropped into the team in which he had topped his club with Terry McGovern and Eddie Miller. Huguey's a good right fielder, and Fagan's fourth for the right side in 1908, in 1909, is a good center fielder, yet only occasionally may his inability to prove costly. With a right-handed pitcher, Rossman might be a good right fielder in America, but in this situation the strong man

GREAT FIELD DAY

FOOD EXPERT WILEY AND HIS CHIEF, WHO DISAGREES WITH HIM

The Knights of Pythias Had a Grand Time

Six companies of the First regiment of the Uniform Rank Knights of Pythias, held an outing yesterday at the Martin Luther's camp "up the river." The visiting companies arrived in Lowell about 3 o'clock in the morning and after a parade through the principal streets returned to the depot and encamped for the recreation grounds.

The Martin Luther's camp was reached about 11 o'clock and the first number on the program was something for the men, namely an excellent dinner, which consists of cold meats, rolls, coffee and ice cream.

The big event of the day was the ball game between the Second and First battalions of the First regiment. Five innings were played and the Second battalion won out, by a score of 5 to 2. The teams lined up as follows:

First battalion—Enness, 16; Arnold, 46; Weir, 16; Scanlon, 16; Bain, 16; Morris, 16; Bowell, 36; Weis, 26, and Denner, 22.

Second battalion—Cook, 36; Parker, 26; Colburn, 16; Sprague, 16; Grant, 26; Ross, 16; Lander, 22; Andrew, 26; Raymond, 26.

The score by innings was:

First Battalion....., 0 0 0 5 0 5

Second Battalion....., 1 0 0 0 1 2

The features of the game were the two-base hit of Scanlon, which scored three runs, and the pitching of Andrew, who struck out seven batters.

The other sports resulted as follows: 100 yards dash, first, W. J. Bain of Haverhill; second, H. F. Pease of Lowell; and third, F. A. Cook of Lowell.

Ladies' 50 yards dash, first, Mrs. Mary Russell; second, Miss Emma E. Walton, Waterford; and third, Miss Ada Rose, Lowell.

The score by innings was:

First Battalion....., 0 0 0 5 0 5

Second Battalion....., 1 0 0 0 1 2

The features of the game were the two-base hit of Scanlon, which scored three runs, and the pitching of Andrew, who struck out seven batters.

The other sports resulted as follows: 100 yards dash, first, W. J. Bain of Haverhill; second, H. F. Pease of Lowell; and third, F. A. Cook of Lowell.

The party entrained for home about 6:15 o'clock, arriving here at 6:30. The visitors then took their trains for home.

OFFICER PETRIE

Arrested Clergyman in Woman's Attire

A man, who it is alleged, is a lascivious, while parading through Merrimack square in female attire last night was detected by Patrolman David Petrie and taken to the police station where after much pains examining the would-be woman said the man had made a wager with several friends that he could walk from Merrimack square to his home and back again in woman's attire without being detected. At the "woman" was given a good talking to "she" was accompanied to "her" home by a police officer.

It was during the early part of the evening while Patrolman Petrie was running his gaze over the crowd of people in the square that his attention became fixed on what appeared to be a young woman of rather large build, with cheeks which had been touched up with paint and powder. "She" was gowned in a white shirt waist and skirt, large picture hat and crash coat of three-quarters length, and also wore a very small pair of shoes.

Patrolman Petrie after looking at the person for some time became suspicious and approaching the "woman" asked if "she" lived in Lowell. The officer was informed that it was none of his business but he decided that it was and seizing the masquerader by the arm he hustled "her" to the police station.

Even then it took some time for the officers about the building to realize that the prettily gowned figure was that of a big, athletic man instead of one of the weaker sex.

At first the "woman" refused to give any explanation of the peculiar action, and when the officers several names until Captain Donnelly became exasperated and demanded the whole truth. Then he came out.

"The young man told his real name,

LAWYER'S WILL SPEAKER CANNON, HIS ENEMY AND

MAN WHO MAY BE SPEAKER

Is Being Contested by His Relatives

BOSTON, Aug. 25.—A contest over the will of Thomas Moran, one of the best known criminal lawyers of New York, who dropped dead in that city not long ago, has been begun by Frederick Nyland and Mrs. Ellen Nyland, a nephew and niece, of Lynn. Mr. Moran is thought to have left about $50,000. The contest will take place in New York. The Nylands are represented by McCarthy & O'Keefe.

Mr. Moran went from Lynn to New York many years ago to practise law. He was looked upon as something of a character in the New York criminal courts and was noted for his keenness. His offices were at 350 Broadway. He was about 60 years old when he died.

Mr. Moran left a will leaving all his property to two brothers and a sister. These are William and Michael Moran and Mrs. Julia Maher, all of Lynn. There has been some difficulty in finding out just what the property consisted of. But counsel for the brothers and sister say so far succeeded in locating about $40,000 worth of securities, and it is thought that there is some real estate.

Mr. Moran never came to Lynn and his brothers and sisters had not seen him for many years. The news of his death and the will came as a surprise. The heirs are people of advanced age. The brothers were formerly shoe workers, but are now retired. They are represented by the firm of Harmon & Healy of Lynn. Attorney W. O. Payne represents Mrs. Maher.

BIG STATE WAR

On the Liquor Traffic to be Waged

BOSTON, Aug. 25.—The forces of prohibition are organizing for the big fight they have ever made in Massachusetts.

The Wrentham Christian Temperance Union, which was the petitioner for the prohibition resolve unexpectedly thrown into the legislature last spring, is preparing to carry the prohibition plank into both the democratic and republican state conventions, and to canvass every candidate for either branch of the legislature.

Miss Elizabeth P. Gordon, acting president of the W. C. T. U. is the leader in the fight. It was announced yesterday at the headquarters of the union on Beacon street that Miss Gordon is now in Portland, Me., and as soon as she returns the fight will be taken up in earnest.

The liquor fight has been carried on in Massachusetts with more vigor than ever before in the last two years. A greater number of towns have swung into the "No" column.

But there had been no attempt made in 20 years to get state-wide prohibition until the legislative committee on constitutional amendments suddenly reported favorably a resolve amending the constitution. It was defeated so crushingly that some of the republicans' machine leaders expressed the fear that it would come up as an issue in the state campaign this fall.

WEALTHY WIDOW

Becomes Brsde of a Messenger Boy

EVANSVILLE, Ind., Aug. 25.—The marriage of Mrs. Louise V. Reitz, a wealthy widow of this city, and William T. Foley, for several years a messenger boy employed by the Western Union Telegraph company, took place at Mt. Carmel, Ill. The couple returned home and engaged a suite of rooms at the New Vendome hotel, where they will live temporarily.

The bride was the widow of John A. Reitz, a sawmill operator, who left a valuable estate when he died eight years ago. Mrs. Foley is about 50 years old, while her husband is 21 years old. Foley has been a frequent visitor at the Reitz home during the last year and the marriage had been expected.

By the provision of her former husband's will, Mrs. Foley will lose the possession of the Reitz homestead in Riverside avenue, which is valued at $2500. The property will pass to the control of her four children. Three daughters are the wife of Fred Bays, an attorney of Sullivan, Ind., and a member of the Board of trustees of the Southern Indiana Insane hospital.

Mrs. Foley and her daughters have been prominent in Evansville society for a number of years. A few years ago one of the daughters was voted as an eastern magazine to be the prettiest woman in the state of Indiana.

The bridegroom, formerly a carriage messenger to the Reitz home, and in this manner met Mrs. Reitz home, and in this manner met Mrs. Reitz home, and their courtship began. Mrs. Foley has property in her own name, and she is now building a new home to be occupied by her and her boy husband.

GUN FIGHTER

KILLED A "BAD" MAN AT SALT LAKE

SALT LAKE, Aug. 25.—"Gunplay" Maxwell celebrated gun fighter, who for years had the reputation of being the worst man in eastern Utah, was killed yesterday by Deputy Sheriff E. B. Johnson at Price. Maxwell, it is said, went to Price for the purpose of experimenting with Johnson's courage, as Johnson is a new man there. The two had a drink together in a saloon. Soon after they left the place Johnson shot Maxwell. Johnson says Maxwell undertook to draw on him, but was too slow.

Maxwell had been in numberless difficulties. A dozen years ago he was captured after a running fight following the robbery of a bank at Springville, U. S. He served a term in prison.

ATTORNEY QUINN

Says Man Offered to Suppress Evidence

BOSTON, Aug. 25.—Attorney John Quinn, defense counsel in the trial yesterday during the trial of one of the men, called Henry Carpenter from the stand and asked him if he had not agreed to continue efforts to suppress evidence for memory consideration and then to drop it.

Carpenter replied that he had not been in the lawyer's office a few days ago. Mr. Quinn then put an attorney on the stand who positively identified Carpenter as the editor in question. This sort of memory was ruled out on the question and Mr. Quinn then stated that he himself was prepared to take the stand and offer to drop the case if the other side would suppress his evidence for the sum of $500 and also to induce his associate in the case to do likewise.

The men on trial were Joseph Belford and Edward McGowan, clerks in a drug store on Beach street and Harrison avenue, who were charged by Secretary of the Wych and Wood robbery with being aiding and abetting in the use of the negro.

Both men will be arraigned for sentence today.

Mr. Quinn said that Carpenter was not an expert for the defense and of course was not interested in the defense. He further stated that the defense agreed to drop the case if the other side would suppress his evidence for the sum of $500 and also to induce his associate in the case to do likewise.

The men on trial were Joseph Belford and Edward McGowan, clerks in a drug store on Beach street and Harrison avenue, who were charged by Secretary of the Wych and Wood robbery with being aiding and abetting in the use of the negro.

The letter or note was signed with a signature that had been forged to the young woman. Miss Carpenter, mother of the young woman, stated today that she has no feeling against either of the boys, whom they were married. The wife of one wants to know where they are now. All will be forgiven if they return from Aug. 25.

In Boston, H. E. W. S. Johnson, son of the young man about whom the note was signed, came back to the city, with his wife, which was to be the boy's mother.

The couple went away Aug. 12, and Miss Carpenter, mother of the young woman, stated today that she has no feeling against either of the boys, whom they were married. The wife of one wants to know where they are now. All will be forgiven if they return from Aug. 25.

WIFE OF ADMIRAL BODY OF A MAN

Says That Her Young Child Was Found at Bottom of a Deep Ravine

SITUATION, Aug. 25.—The sudden death of the six-months-old son of Rear Admiral Joseph Giles Eaton, a autopsy by Medical Examiner J. W. Squires of Bingham at the mother's present at the home of the family in command, and the sensational claims of aspersion, and the threats to bring suit against Mrs. Eaton and her oldest daughter by a former husband that they or charges that she has made, have both been nearly poison'd, have created a storm of excitement such as the exclusive fashionable summer collection her husband's story, regardless of the results of the examination of Dr. Squires, who was called to see the child last Friday night, after a sickness of eight hours, with symptoms of infantile influenza. An autopsy by the authorities was instated by Mrs. Eaton and the stomach and the contents were forwarded to the medical school for examination for the sake of the mother's assertions.

IN EARTHQUAKE
numerous Buildings Destroyed and Many Persons Injured

ENNA, Italy, Aug. 25.—A heavy earthquake was felt throughout the city of Siena at 1:20 a.m. today. Practically all the houses in San Giacomo were destroyed or badly damaged. Many persons were quake was felt most severely within a radius of twenty miles of Siena. Considerable damage was done at Buonconvento. Several collapsed and one person was killed. Several persons were injured there. A number of houses also were damaged there and masonry on the streets. The shock was recorded at Piombino on the coast 50 miles southwest of Siena at 1:25 a.m. and there was a repetition few minutes later. The people fled from their homes but no damage was reported.

Siena itself escaped with a severe shaking. The people were badly injured, however, and rushed out of their houses into the streets where wandered about in a state of semi-panic until they were assured that they were over.

Siena province has an area of 1170 square miles and a population of 90,000. The city of Siena is at an altitude of 1000 feet and counts inhabitants. San Lorenzino, Buonconvento, Monteroni and no are villages with populations ranging from 1000 to 14,000.

BODY OF MAN DISCOVERED

VERILLI, Aug. 25.—An Italian laborer on a berry-picking trip in the Millvale swamps today discovered the body of a man which had been in the woods for a year. No marks of identification were found. The police and medical examiner think that it reveals a murderer.

MORE TYPHOID FEVER

RANSTON, R. I., Aug. 25.—Four more cases of typhoid were discovered at the county jail this morning, making fifteen now under observation. The cases this morning were again almost entirely confined to the three of them being taken to the Rhode Island hospital. The other was a woman prisoner, the first one on the female side to be taken ill.

THE STOCK MARKET

ended Weak on Report of Condition of Harriman's Health

YORK, Aug. 25.—The stock market throughout the list Union Pacific was off over 50 points, the preferred over 3. Southern Pacific, 2. Reading 2 1/2. St. Paul's 2 1/2. U. S. Steel 2 1/2. Standard Oil 2 1/2. The scaling was apparently to be held partly to maintain present dividends and the properties rather than to at a lower level. The rates of the morning session amounted to fully 5000 shares.

Before the end of the first hour further weakness was shown by the Harriman stocks under selling pressure and Union Pacific, 2 1/2 below yesterday's close, the preferred stock 2 1/2. Support was shown but each rally was in excess of 500 shares. In the second hour there was some recovery but on a reduction of operations.

OFFICERS INCENSED

At the Report Presented by Chief Glavis

WASHINGTON, Aug. 25.—The president has taken cognizance of charges made against his supporters by L. F. Glavis, chief of the field division of the general land office in the northwest, with headquarters at Seattle.

Mr. Glavis has presented a report to the president in which he attempted to show that high officials of the interior department had been unnecessarily concerned in the expedition of what are known as the Cunningham claims to valuable coal lands in Alaska and in doing so had a total entire independent of the general officers of the department. The officers are much incensed over the report but take the position that as they are preparing a report for the president their lips are necessarily sealed against outside discussion of the subject. This was the attitude assumed by Commissioner

Dow who only this morning arrived from an inspection tour through the state and Acting Secretary Pierce concluded with all statement. The two officials were engaged early in the day in a conference with General Lawton in consultation with reference to the proposed interview. However, as soon as possible as soon as possible, the officials express indignation regarding the report and say that at the present time they will have no difficulty in convincing the public of the propriety of their conduct in the matter.

The incident is regarded as a phase of the conflict between the interior department and the forestry service. It is felt in the department that Mr. Glavis is co-operating with the forestry bureau and this circumstance adds to the resentment there expressed to the report.

DIVORCE ACTION DISCONTINUED

NEW YORK, Aug. 25.—The action for divorce brought by Mary Manning Hackett against James K. Hackett, the actor and theatrical manager, was discontinued by consent of both parties in the supreme court today and papers were signed to that effect by their counsel. Miss Manning instituted the action about a year ago. The Hacketts were married on November 3, 1907.

NEARLY SHIPWRECKED

J. P. Morgan Had Exciting Experience on His Yacht

NEW YORK, Aug. 25.—The fact that J. P. Morgan was nearly shipwrecked on a ledge in Long Island sound while returning from Newport to this city yesterday on his magnificent steam yacht Corsair, became known today when the yacht was hauled out in a drydock at Hoboken for repairs. The accident occurred near City Island in the westerly end of Long Island sound. The Corsair was making fast to a buoy bringing Mr. Morgan and a party of friends to town when she struck a submerged ledge. Reversing her propellers the yacht quickly backed off the ledge but began to leak and it was evident that some of her plates had been broken by the blow. One of the boilers was also thrown out of position and the machinery was not badly damaged and after an investigation the Corsair proceeded to New York and arrived speed with her pumps going to port for lack of water. Mr. Morgan was safely landed and the yacht sent to the dock for repairs.

TO RESUME DUTIES

PARIS, Aug. 25.—The French government has instructed M. Regnault, who is returning to Morocco to take up his duties as minister, to make common cause with the other members of the diplomatic corps at Tangier who have decided to make firm representations to Muhammed the sultan to discontinue the horrible tortures and mutilations of prisoners such as were practised recently on the followers of E. Reghi who fell into the hands of the sultan's troops.

ONE AEROPLANE
Made its Appearance
Before Noon Today

BETHUNE AVIATION FIELD, Rethymno, France, Aug. 25.—The fourth day of aviation work was ushered in early this morning with a heavy downpour of rain, accompanied by bluster and strong winds. But around noon the rains ceased and the winds became lighter.

The U. S. Peirce machine which has been supplied with new wings was the only airplane to make its appearance before noon.

It made a few short runs in an effort to leave the ground but was unsuccessful.

Prince Albert Leopold of Belgium, accompanied by the members of his family, is among the latest arrivals.

LAWYER'S WILL SPEAKER CANNON, HIS ENEMY ANDIs Being Contested by His Relatives

BOSTON, Aug. 25.—A contest over the will of Thomas Moran, one of the best known criminal lawyers of New York, who dropped dead in the Central Y. M. C. A. building in that city not long ago, has been begun by Frederick Nyland and Mrs. Ellen Nyland, a nephew and niece of Lynn. Mr. Moran is thought to have left about $60,000. The contest will take place in New York. The Nylands are represented by McCarthy & O'Keeffe.

Mr. Moran went from Lynn to New York many years ago to practice law. He was looked upon as something of a character in the New York criminal courts and was noted for his keenness. His offices were at 350 Broadway. He was about 60 years old when he died.

Mr. Moran left a will leaving all his property to two brothers and a sister. These are William and Michael Moran and Mrs. Julia Maher, all of Lynn. There has been some difficulty in finding out just what the property consisted of, but counsel for the brothers and sister have so far succeeded in locating about $40,000 worth of securities, and it is thought that there is some real estate also.

Mr. Moran never came to Lynn and his brothers and sisters had not seen him for many years. The news of his death and the will came as a surprise. The heirs are people of advanced age. The brothers were formerly shoe workers, but are now retired. They are represented by the firm of Harmon & Healy of Lynn. Attorney W. O. Payne represents Mrs. Maher.

BIG STATE WAROn the Liquor Traffic to be Waged

BOSTON, Aug. 25.—The forces of prohibition are organizing for the biggest fight they have ever made in Massachusetts.

The Worcester Christian Temperance union, which was the petitioner for the prohibition resolve unexpectedly thrown into the legislature last spring, is preparing to carry the prohibition plank into both the democratic and republican state conventions, and to canvass every candidate for either branch of the legislature.

Miss Elizabeth P. Gordon, acting president of the W. C. T. U. is the leader in the fight. It was announced yesterday at the headquarters of the union on Beacon street that Miss Gordon is now in Portland, Me., and as soon as she returns, the fight will be taken up in earnest.

The liquor fight has been carried on in Massachusetts with more vigor than ever before in the last two years. A greater number of towns have swung into the "No" column.

But there has been no attempt made in 29 years to get state-wide prohibition until the legislative committee on constitutional amendments suddenly reported favorably a resolve amending the constitution. It was debated so crushingly that some of the republican machine leaders expressed the fear that it would come up as an issue in the state campaign this fall.

WEALTHY WIDOWBecomes Brsde of a Messenger Boy

EVANSVILLE, Ind., Aug. 25.—The marriage of Mrs. Louise V. Reitz, a wealthy widow of this city, and William T. Foley, for several years a messenger boy employed by the Western Union Telegraph company, took place at Mr. Carmel, Ill. The couple returned home and engaged a suite of rooms at the New Vendome hotel, where they will live temporarily.

The bride was the widow of John A. Reitz, a sawmill operator, who left a valuable estate when he died eight years ago. Mrs. Foley is about 30 years old, while her husband is 21 years old. Foley has been a frequent visitor at the Reitz home during the last year and the marriage had been expected.

By the provision of her former husband's will, Mrs. Foley will lose the possession of the Reitz homeestead in Evansville avenue which is valued at $25,000. The property will pass to the control of her four children. One daughter is the wife of Fred T. Tully, an attorney of Sullivan, Ind., and a member of the board of trustees of the Southern Indiana Insane hospital.

Mrs. Foley and her daughters have been prominent in Evansville society for a number of years. A few years ago one of the daughters was voted by an eastern magazine to be the prettiest woman in the state of Indiana.

The bridegroom formerly carried messages to the Reitz home, and in this manner met Mrs. Reitz. He and in this manner met Mrs. Reitz. He and the courtship began. Mrs. Foley has property in her own name, and she is now building a new home to be occupied by her and her boy husband.

GUN FIGHTERKILLED A "BAD" MAN AT SALT LAKE

SALT LAKE, Aug. 25.—Samuel Maxwell, celebrated gun fighter, who has for years had the reputation of being the worst man in western Utah, was killed yesterday by Harry St. E. R. Johnson of Price. Maxwell is said to have come to the state for the purpose of exacting damages with Johnson's employer, John C. Johnson, a well-known man there. Soon after they left the place Johnson and Maxwell, who was then staying at the Hotel Salt Lake, went to the home of Mrs. Mary H. Johnson, the widow of John C. Johnson, and the two men had a life of 40 years.

She will be buried in the Johnson family plot in the Salt Lake cemetery. The funeral will be held Saturday morning at 10 o'clock. The services will be conducted by the Rev. W. H. Johnson, pastor of the First Methodist church.

We will paper your room for $2. We will paper your room furnishing the paper and border to match and hang the paper in a first class manner for $3. Insist and our price is right. Will always give an estimate on any work you intend to have done.

SOCIAL AND FRATERNAL.

The regular meeting of Pilgrim Camp, No. 4, of G. O. E., was held Monday evening at the L. O. O. F. temple. Regular business was transacted and the reports of the door staff committee and manager of the E. P. degree were listened to with much interest. They reported preparations all made to begin the season with a rehearsal at the next meeting. G. C. announced the death of Patriarch Edmund Elliott of Rochester, Minn., former resident of Lowell, who died Aug. 12, 1909, aged 75 years.

Court Merrimack, 11, P. of A., held a well attended meeting in Grafton Hall last night and transacted a large amount of routine business. Capt. Ranger James J. Spallane presided.

The anniversary committee reported that good progress had been made on the plans for the event, and that it promised to eclipse anything ever held by the court. After the meeting a social hour was enjoyed. Refreshments were served and there were remarks by David Gerow, James J. Gallagher, John McPadden and David P. Shea.

KILLED BY GAS

SOMERVILLE MAN MAY HAVE BEEN VICTIM OF ACCIDENT

BOSTON, Aug. 25.—Philip B. Martin, aged 21, who came from Bradford, Me., last April and had since been employed in the construction department of the New England telephone company, working in this section, died of gas poisoning sometime Monday night or yesterday morning at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John C. Ames, 55 College Avenue, Somerville, where he had been boarding. His body was found yesterday morning by Mrs. Ames.

The police, who report death to have been accidental, state that Martin threw his trousers over the gas fixture when he entered Monday night, and by so doing, they believe, unwittingly turned on the gas. Mr. and Mrs. Ames sent out the thought of suicide. E. Martin of Bradford, the young man's father, when informed of his son's death, showed a letter he had the day before received from Philip which clearly indicated the latter's high spirits.

KILLED A DEER

MAN WAS ORDERED TO PAY A FINE

SKOWHEGAN, Me., Aug. 25.—Charles S. Adams, deputy sheriff and game warden at Jackson, arrived here yesterday forenoon with two men who were committed to the county jail for killing deer in closed time. There were Ernest Nadeau of Easton, who was given a fine of $10, and H. W. McNeil, Lévis, Quebec, Canada, fined $4.88. Neither could pay.

SCITUATE, Aug. 25.—The sudden poison after an autopsy by Medical Examiner Spangler, who was called by Rear Admiral Joseph Giles Eaton, the Scituate, who attended the baby, autopsy by Medical Examiner J. W. Bear Admiral Eaton, retired, is at Scituate and the sensational claims of Aspinwall, and threats to bring suit for divorce from his wife on account of charges that she has made.

Mrs. Eaton, on her part, declares her intention of securing an examination of her husband's sanity, regardless of the results of the examination at the Harvard Medical school.

The medical autopsy was not made and after repeated demands by Mrs. Eaton, Dr. Cleary found nothing suspicious in the sickness of the baby and called in Dr. Spangler for the state's account of the mother's assertions.

A RARE CHANCE

An uncommon manufacturing location at Lawrence, Massachusetts. A very desirable property. A portion of the "original mill powers" on North Union—hence very low rates, prior rights, permanent water power 16 hours a day, and valuable concession in much surplus water. Frontage on freight tracks of Boston & Maine system, 242 feet rear frontage on Merrimack river. The land is about two-thirds covered with frame buildings that now rent for $7500 per year. Immediately surrounded and surrounded by the largest, some of the newest and many of the most famous manufacturing plants in New England. The Joseph Battles mill property, Island street, pledged to the highest bona fide bidder in one lot. The sale will take place upon the premises on TUESDAY, the 31st day of August, 1909, promptly at half-past two o'clock in the afternoon, regardless of any condition of the weather. Illustrated and descriptive catalogue in detail upon application at the office of the Auctioneers, where all inquiries must be made.

TOWNSEND, Vt., Aug. 25.—The accidental discovery of the decomposed body of George Kent, a farmer, 40 years old, of this town by his two sons at the bottom of a deep and unreported ravine near the Kent house, was the cause of an investigation into the man's death by State Attorney Charles H. Williams of Bellows Falls yesterday. On July 30, Kent paid a visit to the neighboring farm of Herbert Barker and after leaving Barker's house to go home, nothing was heard from him since until his discovery made by his two little boys.

These boys, Bernard, aged 11, and Perry, aged 9, while playing on the hillside near their home, clambered to the top of the ravine and peered over. The quick eyes of the older boy detected something that looked to him like the coat his father had worn on the day he disappeared. With an eager boy made his way down the gully followed by his brother. The coat was identified by both the youngsters as the one their father had worn.

Officers Were Pretty Badly Used Up

ATTACKED POLICE SHOT HIS WIFE

Man Then Turned the Weapon on Himself

BUCKEY, N. Y., Aug. 25.—Harry Somers Weems, said to be registrar of some university in Pennsylvania, shot his wife twice in the body and then shot a bullet into his own ear last night while the couple were walking on Niagara square in the shadow of the McKinley monument. Both are still alive but can hardly recover.

HERMIT'S HOARD

Was Found by Men at North Adams

NORTH ADAMS, Aug. 25.—Peter Morgan and Henry Williams of Pawlet, Vt., are $500 richer than they were three days ago.

They went into a deserted hut to escape a severe thunder storm and in prying about found beneath some loose floor boards an old rusty coffee can filled to the cover with gold and silver coins and $1 bills.

The hoard is supposed to have belonged to an aged hermit, Willis Brown, who was found dead in the van of these funeral trains, dressed in their tattered and bearing an air of deep grief.

One hand of eight mystic furnished tunes to which the strikers tramped in dust and grim to pay their respects to the men who lay upon them as martyrs to a now lost cause.

The finding late yesterday of three more bodies of terribly beaten strike sympathizers added a horrifying feature, for troopers detailed to the work of searching for dead and wounded made little effort to spare the feelings of the men who gathered about them when the bodies lay under a pile of railroad ties and one under a culvert on the tracks of the Pittsburgh & Lake Erie railroad, were piled into sight.

The bodies, hardly recognizable as those of human beings, were hastily piled into a morgue wagon and turned over to the county officials.

With the burial of the dead strikers and the finding of the additional bodies came a truce in hostilities. From dawn to nightfall not a pistol shot was heard, neither was an arrest made.

The striking men and their sympathizers, during the day, kept quiet and even gave up a mass meeting planned for the late afternoon, as they believed any gathering of the workers could do no good at this time.

Eugene V. Folsom, the socialist orator, was in McKees Rocks to address the strikers, but he declared that words were of little avail now as the results of Sunday night had for once and all placed the strikers in the positions of outcasts, whose case was all but lost.

And on every hand last night it was conceded that the strikers have lost their fight.

The Pressed Steel Car Co.'s plant yesterday was in operation with over 1600 men at work.

The total death toll resulting from Sunday night's disorders now totals 11, while two are in hospitals expected to die within the next 24 hours.

The less seriously injured are all reported to be improving slowly.
